

Coach,

It is with great enthusiasm that I write this letter to recommend Daniel Thomas for your golf team. As his coach over the past two years, I have had the privilege of witnessing Daniel grow into not only a remarkable athlete but also an individual of exceptional character, intellect and strong work ethic.

Daniel possesses a rare combination of natural talent, patience, and a relentless drive to excel—qualities that are the cornerstone of both his academic and athletic success. On the golf course, he consistently demonstrates precision, strategy, and resilience, handling the challenges of the game with poise and grace. In the classroom, he exhibits the same dedication, excelling in his AP level courses.

What truly sets Daniel apart is his unwavering commitment to self-improvement. Whether refining his swing in the early morning hours or delving into course strategies after practice, Daniel embodies the ethos of hard work and perseverance.

I am confident that Daniel will thrive in your program and continue to excel both on and off the course. His exceptional talent, determination, and character make him not only a deserving candidate for this scholarship but also a worthy ambassador of your organization's values.

Thank you for considering Daniel for this opportunity. Please do not hesitate to contact me at 224-627-3940 or andyatnougolf18@gmail.com if you require further information.

Sincerely,
Andrew Patnou
